THE BAZAAR A SUCCESS.

The M. E. Church Bazaar at the Armory last night was a pronounced success. They had a big rush and were unable to feed the people fast enough. The ladies had a beautiful display of fancy articles and made profitable sales. The home-made candies were in great demand and brought many shekels into the exchequer.
All parties interested are elated over the success of the bazaar, which was a success financially and socially.
The Daytona Band furnished music which was much enjoyed.

Received News of Brother's Death

Mrs. Dwight R. Stillman received a telegram last Tuesday evening announcing the death of her only surviving brother, T. Frank Flinn, at his home in Orange, N. J. Mr. Flinn, who was but 39 years old, suffered an attack of apoplexy a month or more ago from which he never fully recovered although he was at one time enough improved to write to Mrs. Stillman, trying to allay her fears on his account, knowing that she herself was in poor health and that worry and anxiety would do her harm. Mrs. Stillman, who was nearly prostrated by the sad intelligence, has the deep sympathy of her many friends in this city in her bereavement.

KING & TUCKER'S SHOW IS HERE—LOT ON VOLUSIA AVE.

"Not The Biggest, But The Best,"
Is The Trade Mark—There Is An Elephant.

"Hold your horses, for the elephant's coming." Today is circus day. The King & Tucker Big City Railroad Show arrived in the city from the south early this morning, and the tents are pitched at the usual place, the Volusia avenue lot, just west of the F. E. C. R. R.
The band, a good one, was up town this morning, and a good crowd is witnessing the performance this afternoon. Another show will be given tonight, commencing promptly at 8 o'clock.
The Knight & Tucker is one of the few good small shows traveling by cars. No one going to the show need fear a Sun Brothers' frost. This show is legitimate from start to finish.
The King & Tucker show will probably be the largest show here this season, so go early to avoid the rush, pick out a soft seat, buy a balloon, take a fan, small the elephant, and enjoy yourself. Life is short.

Minstrel Show on Monday.

The A. G. Allen Minstrel Show, under canvas, which has exhibited here before, will play here on next Monday, Feb. 22nd, Washington's Birthday.
The company travels in a private car, and shows under its own tent, having a seating capacity for 3,000. Therefore the management is able to reduce the scale of prices to 25 and 50 cents.
The troupe includes a band which will give the regular noon-day parade.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.

(By United Press.)
TEHERAN, Persia, Feb. 19.—Reliable reports from province of Turkistan say that the earthquake of January 23d was of unprecedented violence. Couriers arriving from the scene say the prolonged quake changed the entire appearance of the country, lifting mountains, shifting streams and engulfing many villages, and of many towns no trace remains. The Shah has sent out adequate relief parties. The inaccessibility of Turkistan, which is 300 miles from Teheran, in the mountain fastness, makes the work of relief in the stricken territory arduous.

THE ELKS TO BANQUET.

The Elks have an important meeting on for this evening at their handsome new quarters in the Conrad building. Their paraphernalia—whatever that may be—arrived this morning and is to be put in service this evening.
The goat is being groomed, the branding irons are now in the fire, and other preparations are going forward looking toward the initiation of a number of candidates who will be led around and put wise to things they never dreamed of before.
After the festivities and solemnities attending the initiations the herd will browse on various appetizing things washed down with barrels of the proper sort of brew.

A BIG VOTE CAST IN THE BUSH & SAFFORD CONTEST.

Daytona High School Making Remarkable Run—Opera House Strong.

The count of Wednesday night shows probably the largest vote known during the contest, and in the excitement of the last few days the Elks have gained over 35,000 on the Eastern Star, which order it seems they will surely pass in a few days longer. However, a great deal longer gain daily will have to be made by the Elks in order to get the piano.
The Daytona High School had a vote of over 75,000, and the Elks a vote of over 90,000. The Rifles vote was only fair.

Outside of Daytona the Wilmon Opera House forged ahead, although the Kingston School had a large vote. The Ormond School passed the 1,000 mark.
Some people have been heard to complain: "I put — votes in for — yesterday, but the count didn't show it." If that is the case there is something wrong. If the ballots go in the box they are counted. Maybe yeggs have tampered with the ballot boxes too, but this is not probable.

The Tent Service.

There will be services at the tent tomorrow and Sunday as follows:
Saturday—Sabbath school 2 p. m.; preaching 3 and 7:30 p. m.
Sunday—Preaching 7:30 p. m.
Subjects: Saturday night, "The Longest Prophetic Period in the Bible;" Sunday night, "Court Week in Heaven."

FULLNESS OF DETAIL.

The following appreciated notice is from Florida's greatest paper and gives the Daytona Daily News a very cheery feeling:
The Daytona Daily News' account of the Clarendon hotel fire in its fullness of detail, clearness and picturesqueness of statement and freedom from attempt at "fine writing" would have done justice to any metropolitan daily.—Times-Union.

Yesterday seems to have been visiting teachers' day at the Daytona public school. During the day the visiting list included C. E. Orth, principal of the Ormond school and his assistant teachers; H. J. Chaffer, principal of the Oak Hill school, and Miss Ivy Royal, his assistant; Miss Marie E. Mann, principal of the Holly Hill school, and her assistant, Mrs. D. E. Lyon. Supt. A. O. Botts, of DeLand, was also present.

Manager Hobbs has leased a Conover Cabinet Grand to assist at the Grand Musical act of Monahan & Sheehin. Miss Ella Williams, pianist.

PALMETTO CLUB TEA.

The Palmetto Club Tea was given by the Calendar Committee, Mrs. Ida L. Niver, Mrs. Harriet C. Gardiner, Mrs. Belle Abbott Haynes, Mrs. Miriam E. Clark and Mrs. Florence H. Marsh at the Club rooms, Thursday afternoon.
Mrs. Romaine Downing, Mrs. Ida L. Niver and Mrs. Florence Marsh were the receiving committee.
Mrs. Mary B. Foote and Mrs. Caroline A. D. Shugart presided at the refreshment table assisted by several of the younger club members and the Misses Hartje.
Mrs. Endsley, a guest of the Howard added much pleasure to the afternoon by her beautiful singing of "O Thou Wondrous Youth"—Abt, with violin obligato by Wm. E. Biedgett, accompanied by Miss Willaume. For an encore she charmed her audience with "A Cradle Song," by Kate Vannah.
One of the features of the afternoon was a guessing contest. A number of the members having their earlier photographs. The prize was won by Mrs. Huston.
The foregoing is a brief outline of one of the most pleasant and enjoyable of the Palmetto Club events of the season.

HIGH LIFE AT DELAND

The Count and Countess Alexio de Quevion Ribiro de Sotto-Majore Das-concellos Conde de Santa Eulalia, with their suite, are stopping at the College Arms Deland. In plain United States' talk, the widow of the Philadelphia derby hat manufacturer with her Italian Count, whom she married after the millionaire's death, are giving a few thrills to the Hub city of Volusia today.

THE "ORMOND" MAGNANIMOUS.

Hats off to the great Ormond Hotel and her magnanimous guests. Their contribution to the Clarendon fire victims is $1078.75. The bulk of this magnificent contribution was sent down the day of the fire by Manager Price, who was quick to appreciate the gravity of the situation and lost no time in coming to the rescue. A recent Ormond guest, G. H. Risley, on board his yacht, "Harrion," now in the St. Johns river, wrote Mr. Price, inclosing a check for $100

Doings at Daytona Beach
DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 19.—The M. E. Church Bazaar opened in the McCullough building, on Seabreeze avenue, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and the members of the Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices it was held, had a very busy time, with results sufficiently encouraging for the generous outpour of energy and time invested, from first to last, in its success. At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon $75 had been taken in and it was expected that the evening sales of light refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cakes, coffee, chocolate and ice cream, would swell this amount considerably. The brisk sale of fancy and useful articles had nearly depleted the large and attractive stock on hand at the opening, by sunset. The members of the Aid at the heads of the various booths and refreshment stands were as follows: Mesdames Finley Barnes and Branch, Vanderlande, Burdick, Brooks and Miss Maud Hubbard made an excellent cashier. The service was fine, in which a variety of young ladies took part. The room and various tables were attractively decorated, and all in all the ladies may be proud of their success.
Mrs. T. J. Miller and daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller, arrived yesterday from Sanford, and through the agency of E. A. Branch, are pleasantly located in the Weaver cottage on the beach. They expect to spend the month here.
Mrs. C. L. Horn, who was called to the bedside of her mother at Chatsworth some two weeks ago, arrived home Wednesday evening. Her mother is better but not sufficiently recovered to make the trip to Daytona Beach.

ORMOND
Music day at Ormond Village Improvement Club, was in charge of Miss Sawyer, who introduced the program with a short interesting talk on Russian music, which seems to be the theme most talked of in the music world today. Miss Sawyer played, with her usual charm, Theme Valse, Chaminade; Margarita Shaw, a pupil of Miss Sawyer, then played Romance, Stravinsky; Abent, a vocal solo rendered by Mr. Pierce, greatly pleased the audience, "Love Song," the violinist, Mr. Frank Koebel, a great favorite, played Revere, Henri Vieuxtemps, he responded to a hearty encore with Revere, Mazurka Caracaterisque, Henri Wieniawski; Mrs. Church of Daytona, sang most delightfully, "Love the Pedlar," and "The Rosary," being ably accompanied by Miss Perkins; Miss Knowlton's many friends were greatly pleased to hear her again, she read "The Swan Song" following this with one of the "Cape Cod Ballads;" Mrs. Church sang, "O, Dry Those Tears" and most generously applauded; the program closed with Truener, Schuman, exquisitely played by Mr. Koebel, in answer to a request sent from the audience. A social hour followed, the hostesses for the afternoon, being Mesdames Thornton, Stewart Saythe, Milligan, McNeal.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Dayton's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-better, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk sit gliding upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming in the yard round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Like Father Like Son.
Four-year-old Clyde was a precocious youngster—very talkative and a close observer. He and his father were strolling through the meadows one morning when Clyde observed for the first time some tadpoles in a pond. He waded in and cried out, "Oh, father, what are they?"

"Tadpoles, son," the father replied.
"Please, father, let's take them all home with us, then come back and feed the mamma and papa, and we'll have the whole family in our pond at home."

The father explained how impossible this would be, and as they walked on a few steps a large, ugly frog hopped across their path. Clyde's father said:
"Look, son. Perhaps there is the papa."

Clyde was very thoughtful. He looked at the frog, then at his father, then at himself and exclaimed:
"Well, father, was there ever so much difference between me and you?"

Curious School Customs.
Mexican schoolmasters show their appreciation of a pupil's efforts in a curious manner. The diligent student is allowed to smoke a cigar during the lesson. When the whole class has given satisfaction, permission is given for a general smoke, and even the little Mexicans are allowed to light a cigar rette for the occasion. Needless to say, the schoolmaster himself smokes a cigar of a size and quality proportionate to his superior position. But the scholars are not allowed to drink, this privilege being accorded to the master only. On his desk he always keeps a bottle of liquor, which, when empty, occasions much dispute among the parents of his scholars, as it is considered an honor to be able to fill the schoolmaster's bottle.—London Standard.

How Marshall Field Made Money.
In the early eighties, when the First National bank of Wallawalla was not as big as it is now, I pretty nearly had my breath taken away one day by a good looking stranger halting from Chicago. He threw a letter of credit for $80,000 from a Chicago bank on my desk and quietly said, "Can you cash that?" I looked him over once or twice, made a quick estimate of all the loose cash I thought we could scrape up and said: "Yes. How do you want it?" He gave a smile, sat down and said, "I think I'll take it in kind." In a month's time, as his authorized agent, I bought about 80-000 acres of cheap railroad land for my Chicago friend, taking the deeds in my name at his request, paying an average of $2.65 an acre. He cleared over $1,000,000 on this one deal. His name was Marshall Field.—Senator Ankeny's Reminiscences in Leslie's Weekly.

Too Late Now.
Mother—I hope you are nice to that young man who has been calling, dear.
Daughter—I don't have to be now, mamma, for he's in love with me.—

C. W. BISHOP, 1125 Broadway, New York.

Carving Scissors.

"I thought I knew all about carving scissors," said the man. "I had seen tailors' scissors for cutting heavy cloth, dressmakers' scissors for cutting filmy fabrics and lace and still other scissors for cutting paper, finger nails, grapevines, all kinds of metals and even for shearing sheep, but in spite of that wide knowledge of scissors I was puzzled when I saw the large, peculiarly shaped pair of scissors lying in the showcase."

"What are these scissors for?" I asked the clerk.

"Carving men," he said. "With scissors of this kind carving becomes mere child's play."

"I never saw anybody use them," said I.

"Nobody does use them," said the clerk—that is, only a very few. In Europe carving scissors are popular because they cut right through meat, gristle, bone and all, but it takes a little practice to learn to manipulate the things, and nobody in this country has patience enough for that."—Exchange.
